Arctic Inspiration Prize Awards Ceremony
Canada Hall 1 - Level 3, Shaw Centre

The Arctic Inspiration Prize recognizes and promotes the extraordinary contribution made by teams in the gathering of Arctic knowledge and their plans to implement this knowledge to real world applications for the benefit of the Canadian Arctic, Arctic peoples and therefore Canada as a whole.

The $3 million CAD Arctic Inspiration Prize is awarded annually. There are five equally important pillars that contribute to its ongoing success: the $3 million annual prize money, the teams who apply for and win the Prize, the distinguished Selection Committee and the Prize’s remarkable, engaged Partners and Ambassadors.

Visit www.arcticinspirationprize.ca for more information.

WORKSHOP: Making it Work - Rural and Remote Workforce Stability
Room 212 - Level 2, Shaw Centre

Presenter: Ms. Jennifer Wakegijig RD MBA, Manager of Program Development & Strategic Initiatives, Northern Ontario School of Medicine

In this interactive workshop, participants will learn about an evidence-based framework for recruitment and retention in rural and remote communities that has been developed through a seven-year international partnership among subject matter experts and front-line service providers in several countries in Europe’s Northern Periphery and in Canada. http://rrmakingitwork.eu/

Following a brief presentation, participants will discuss key recruitment and retention challenges, and strategies they have employed to address them. They will also discuss the elements of the "Making it Work" framework, and identify practical steps and tools they can apply to their own recruitment and retention initiatives.

AIM: In addition to learning about international best practices in rural and remote recruitment and retention, at the conclusion of this workshop, participants will have identified key areas for improvement in their existing recruitment and retention strategies, and will have identified practical steps for addressing them in the near and longer term.
